

Cascade Clamps

Cascade Clamp - Established in Portland, Oregon in the year 1943, the Cascade Manufacturing Company started as a small machine store hiring only 4 individuals. Total sales for that particular year amounted to about sixty thousand dollars. The very first recorded sales revenues involved the machining and assembly of stainless steel pipe fittings, valves and various parts. Throughout 5 years of operation, the business had expanded to 40 workers and their yearly sales volume had risen to 330 thousand dollars. Today, Cascade is one of the leading global manufacturers in the material handling industry.

Design and production of the company's original hydraulic cylinder allowed this new business to aggressively pursue better business opportunities. Throughout the last sixty years, the business of material handling has developed into a very complex area with Cascade proudly playing a part in its progress. Cascade at the moment continues to develop as the leader supplier of lift truck accessories and different related products. The business feels certain in their ability to continue to lead the way in the business by understanding buyer's needs in the future and remaining competitive within the world market.

During the 1950's, Cascade began to make, design, and advertise its hydraulic attachments. A brand new facility was made in the year 1956, so as to accommodate all the plant operations and offices in Portland, Oregon, which remains to be the company's current center of operations. Subsequent to 15 years of business, total workers reached 180 staff and sales had reached practically 2.3 million dollars.

The next production plant was built in 1959 in Springfield, Antioch. nineteen sixty marked Cascade's preliminary transfer into the international world of the material handling industry as the business established interest in England, Australia, and the Netherlands.

The company altered its name to Cascade Corporation in 1964. In the year 1965, Cascade went public with a preliminary offering of two hundred thousand shares of common stock. The business has expanded its production facilities within the United States with areas in Portland, Oregon, Springfield, Antioch, and Warner Robins, Georgia. Cascade merchandise are made worldwide thanks to a lot of subsidiary operations. In 1994, a brand new facility was completed in Almere, the Netherlands which is Cascade's European headquarters. This facility is made to be the ultimate customer service centre.

Cascade further expanded their product base in 1996 and the year 1997 after acquiring 5 companies, which included the Kenhar Corporation, the worldwide best in blades.
